SIXTY SORTS SOUP:—It has been erroneously reported that Jim Derrick has enlisted. It is John B. Derrick who has enlisted. Jim is still at the Luncheonette selling sixty sorts of soup.

THE WEATHER is getting warm and first class fish and meats are hard to get and very high, but I am still selling at the winter prices and keep my coolers at winter time temperature. Consequently you get fish and meats here as fresh as in middle of December. Call at 207 East Whitner street and inspect my place. Phone 292, George Sanders, order man, Paul Finley and W. J. Maness, Jr., delivery. W. J. Maness, the Sea-dog, Man.

CELLULOID:—We can put celluloid in your auto curtains any time and you'll detain you very long. Paul E. Stephens.

I CAN SELL you my home place, No. 800 North Fant street, also a three room house, No. 723 North Fant street, with an adjoining store room for an investment. Both properties well equipped with all modern conveniences. The seven room house now occupied by G. R. Dodd. I will sell this property so the present rent that I am getting would be good investment on your money. J. L. E. Jones, 103 S. McDuffie street.

DID IT ever occur to you that most of the QUICK SALES and RENTALS of property are made through classified advertising? Try these next time you have something for sale.

WHY NOT set out 5,000 or 10,000 Nancy Hall or Catawba Yam potato plants where you have harvested your grain. We will furnish the plants at $1.00 per thousand. Martin Wood and Coal Co.

SLABS:—For a short time I can supply you with good, clear, thick low country slabs at $3.50 per cord, delivered. I will also appreciate your orders for cotton seed meal and hulls. B. N. Wyatt, Phone 182.

WE ARE now handling some fine stall red cattle and selling the very best steak that money can buy for 10c per lb. Plenty of veal and chicken at market price. Chicken's dressed and alive as cheap as you can buy them in the country. Also plenty of fish any day in the week. Your trade will be appreciated. Give us a trial. Phone 755, Dobbin's market, opposite Tolly's.

BREAKFAST SAUSAGE:—The demand for our all pork sausage is keeping us very busy. They surely are the highest grade on the market. Made from fresh pork carefully selected and seasoned with just enough fresh ground herbs and pure spices to give that very unusual and delicious flavor distinctive of Lindsay's. Phone your order to 694, The Lily White Market, J. M. Lindsay, Proprietor.

DEVON'S PAINT:—The old stand by, the oldest paint makers in America and the best. Paint with Devon's, lower gallons, wears longer. W. L. Brissey Lumber Co.

MR. "BLANK" IS NOW IN MAINE

Augusta Man Believes Strange Case of Young Amnesia Will Soon Be Solved.

Augusta, Ga., June 26.—Mr. W. E. Trowbridge, returned to Augusta yesterday from Maine, whither he had gone, with Mr. Blank, in the hope of restoring that young man to his family.

Mr. Blank, it will be recalled, is the stranger who has been in Augusta suffering from loss of memory. Arriving in Bangor, Mr. Blank—now, by the by, calls himself Mr. Jack Blank—directed Mr. Trowbridge to the Bangor House. He displayed a remarkable familiarity with the place. He declared he recognized the face of the captain of police of Bangor, and that officer, in return, said he was positive that he had before seen Mr. Blank, but, just then, could not recall when and where.

The roads were so bad, following heavy rains, that the proposed automobile trip into the country adjacent to Bangor was not taken.

"I am confident," said Mr. Trowbridge, "that the man belongs in Maine. He is among his own people. His are the mannerisms and his is the brogue of the people I met there. I believe that it will be shown who he is and that he will be yet returned to his people. Many people believed he is Albin Davis Pike, the missing Harvard student. I had to leave Bangor before Pike's people arrived there.

"I stated Mr. Blank angrily and left him in charge of the Y. M. C. A. there. The Y. M. C. A., the police and city officials are thoroughly interested in him. They are determined to give him every help. All of them promised me that they would secure employment for him right away.

"I established beyond question that Mr. Blank is not the escaped insane person he was at one time believed to have been."

To The Public

"I have been using Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion for the past six months and it affords me pleasure to say I have never used a remedy that did me so much good."—Mrs. C. E. Riler, Ithaca, N. Y. Chamberlain's Tablets are obtainable everywhere.

WEBB, ANDERSON
BOY, IS FARMED
OUT BY COMERS

Columbia, June 26.—Manager Harbison has wired Secretary Hendrix that he has closed a deal with the manager of the Rome club for an optional trade on Webb. Webb goes to this Georgia-Alabama League team with strings attached. Manager Harbison can recall him at any time he wishes.

St. Clair Webb joined the club several weeks ago and has played first base in a number of games and outfield in two. He showed up well with the stick and also showed considerable ability as a fielder but because of new players coming in and also because of Webb's light experience in the professional game it was decided to let him out. Webb is a youngster only out of college a year or so, but he seems to have the makings of a good ball player if he can be cured of an apparent nervousness. At any rate, Harby will keep an eye on him. Webb is a favorite son of Anderson. He played star baseball and football at Clemson and because of his gentlemanly conduct on and off the ball field he has made many friends in Columbia.

Why Trade at the Sign of the Big Watch

Because they sell only reliable merchandise.
Because everything they show is brand new.
Because they never misrepresent an article of any kind.
Because they take advantage of all discounts and sell at lowest prices.
Because they guarantee everything to be as represented.
Because they keep every promise and their goods always measure up to requirements—and because they're always on the job.
There are many other reasons but we'll give only one more—It pays to trade at the sign of The Big Watch, and we can prove it.
